

REDISTRICT PETERSBURG

Old Political Lines Wiped Out by the Division of Territory.

EFFECT ON MAYORALTY

Council Appropriates Money to Pay for Land to be Occupied by Diversion Canal.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., April 7.—The boundaries of the wards in this city will be materially changed by the committee of the Common Council appointed to rearrange the wards. The familiar "Fifth Ward" of the past will soon lose its existence, and the large and uncertain vote that kept the politicians guessing will be divided among other wards. Many other important changes will result, and the election of aldermen and councilmen will doubtless figure largely in the voting this spring for mayor.

THE NEW WARDS.
The exact boundaries have not yet been definitely decided upon, but the committee has practically agreed to the following: First Ward will be enlarged by taking in the south side of Lombard and Third Streets, the line then running up Third to Henry, thence to Jefferson, and taking in the whole of the city from the east side of Jefferson Street.

Second Ward will embrace the part of the city west of Jefferson and east of Harrison Street, the east side of Union, north side of Tabb, and running along the east side of Market Street to the river.

Third Ward, west side of Union, up Harrison, south side of Tabb to Market, up south side of Washington to Dunlop, thence through to Halifax.

Fourth Ward will begin east side of Dunlop, north of Washington, through to the river.

Fifth Ward, west of Dunlop Street, Sixth Ward will take in the east side of Halifax either from the east or Brown Street, and both sides of Halifax, probably from New on St. Matthews Street, and retain "Williamsburg."

LAND FOR CANAL

The Common Council last night appropriated $6,500 to pay for the land in Chesapeake county, necessary for the diversion of the Appomattox River. The amount will be refunded to the city by the United States government.

The Finance Committee will report later on the tax ordinance.

The resolutions, referring to the conflict of authority between the mayor and the police commissioners, have been referred to a committee, composed of W.
J. Jones, George Cameron and C. W.
Bland, to investigate the trouble.

SALE OF HOMESTEAD

The old homestead of John A. Gibbs, seven miles from Petersburg, in Chesterfield county, containing four hundred acres, has been sold to A. Vest, of Chesterfield county, for $4,000.

Rev. E. C. Davis will talk to men Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A.
Rev. A. M. Hall continues quite ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. C.
Hall, in Norfolk.

Miss Elizabeth H. White, of Raleigh, N. C., is visiting friends in Petersburg.
Furcy Haswell, in "Sowing the Wind," will come to the Academy Saturday, matinee and night.

Miss Catherine Custis, of Richmond, has returned, after a visit to Petersburg.

FACES ON THE PANE.

Photographs Appear on Windows of Courthouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
YORKTOWN, VA., April 7.—A curious phenomenon that is attracting the attention of the passing public is the appearance of photographic impressions on the windows of the courthouse in this town.
From whatever cause there may be ascribed for this anomaly, certain it is that the ghostly artist has left a sharp impression of his delicate work, which can be easily traced when the sunlight is properly focused on the object. One of the tracings can be distinguished as representing a ghostly figure, apparently a skeleton with his bony fingers clasped tightly around a telescope poised, mariner-like, before the eye, intent on discerning some distant object. This is pronounced by those informed on the subject to be nothing less than the shade of Old Blackbeard, the pirate chief, who once had his head quartered at Temple Point, and even now haunts the vicinity of his old hiding place.

On another pane is distinctly seen the head of a horse, distinct as if drawn by Rosa Bonheur, the distinguished enumer, and which she could well afford to own as her work, a nest of serpents, a pair of twins, the "gemini" of the zodiacal signs, and other indistinguishable labors of the wand can be seen on other panes of glass, until one gets a pain in the eyes trying to unravel the mystery.

D. D. D. SPECIAL OFFER REGARDING diseases of the skin.

I have lately secured the agency for this city and vicinity of a preparation which is reliable and certain in clearing away troubles of the skin. Many forms of skin affections which have been considered incurable are conquered by this medicament as easily as a cough is stopped by the proper soothing and healing influences. This preparation is now in use among skin specialists, and many large hospitals have adopted it for eczema and kindred cases. It stands among the most useful medical agents now known.

I have evidence of its work to show which will interest any sufferer. Call and investigate same. Since I have been handling the remedy—known as D. D. D.—its work proves so effective I guarantee its efficacy. In all cases of skin affection I will refund the price of a bottle ($1) if the sufferer does not consider it literally a Godsend after trying it. It is curing the worst kind of cases every day. It seems a pity any one should suffer the torture of skin troubles when so dependable a curative agent can be had so cheaply.

A RUSH FOR THE POWER OF LAW

Constable Resigns Because He Had Too Many Warrants.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MEHERRIN, VA., April 7.—There was something doing here this week among the constable and justice of the peace on the Prince Edward side. Warrants and cross-warrants were drawn up so fast that the constable was unable to serve them here on citizens in the street.
While one was being served, another was being drawn, and during this time a fight took place among two negroes, which resulted in the adding of more to the list, and when the constable was notified that more were ready to be served, he positively refused to be served, and turned over the entire list to the justice and immediately saddled his horse and left for Farmville, twenty miles, where he a few hours later resigned his position.

The gentleman is Mr. T. H. Vaughan, who, by a special act of the court of Prince Edward county, was appointed to this office a few months ago. His reason for giving up the office was that there was too much work connected with it, a complaint that is seldom heard among this class of officers, as the case is generally, the more warrants to serve, the better for the officer.

Mr. Watkins Ventnorford, a very popular young man of this county, died Monday at his home near Klimath, Va., aged twenty-one years.

Miss Edna Harding, a very pretty and popular young lady of the same neighborhood, to whom he was engaged, was at the grave dressed in deep mourning.
The interment was made at Keysville.
Mr. Marker and Miss Carrie Waddell, whose father died here yesterday, were to have been married here at her home today by Rev. W. T. Clarke. Everything was in readiness for the ceremony the day previous, when Mr. Waddell, the father of the bride, was taken worse, and died within a few minutes after. The preacher had been engaged to perform the ceremony, and the license secured, when the sad news was conveyed to the groom-to-be, and he immediately set out for the home of his fiancée, where the ceremony was arranged for a later date.

FOR AN ELECTRIC LINE TO FLOYD COUNTY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., April 7.—A committee of prominent citizens of Floyd county will confer with the Transportation Committee of the Board of Trade today in regard to an electric line from this city to Floyd County. The two committees were much impressed with the scheme, and an effort will be made to secure the building of the road.

OLD VIRGINIA WEDDINGS

Brilliant and Fashionable Gathering in Rocky Run Church, Brunswick County.

MISS IDA M. JONES THE BRIDE

Weds Mr. Richard Luther Powell—An Interesting Marriage in Bedford City.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BEDFORD, N. C., April 7.—One of the most fashionable marriages that ever occurred in this section took place at Rocky Run Church, yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Richard Luther Powell led to the altar Miss Ida Mason Jones.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreen, with walls and floor inlaid with bleached, and illuminated with admirable candles overhead.

An arch was suspended in a semi-circle over the chancel rail, and in the center was suspended a bell of violets and narcissus, under which the couple stood while Rev. N. J. Pruden pronounced them man and wife. The couple were married with a ring, which was brought to the altar by little Cornelia Powell on a silver waiter.

The bride was lovely gowned in white organdy, made over white satin, with long train and veil, caught with bride roses, and carried bride roses on a pin. Her maids of honor were Miss Fannie Powell, who wore pink organdy with train and pink bow in hair, and Miss Lizzie Jones, who wore blue organdy with train and blue bow in hair.
The attendants were in the following order:

Miss Agnes Stalnack, of Weldon, N. C., with Mr. E. T. Maddux, of Nottoway, Va.; Miss Bettie Sue Powell, of For-kland, Va., with Mr. Tom Sam Maddux, of Lunenburg; Miss Belle Stalnack, of Weldon, N. C., with Mr. Lynn Johnson, of the Eastern Shore; Miss Lillian Maddux, of Brydie, with Mr. Howard Powell, of Forkland, Va.; Miss Sallie Wallace, of the B. F. Institute, with Mr. Forest Stalnack, of North Carolina; Miss Be-sie Maddux, of Maddux, with Mr. Harper Haskins, of Red Oak, Va.; Miss Jean Kennedy, of the B. F. Institute, with Mr. James Powell, of Forkland, Va.; Miss Kate Baird, of Edmund's Store, with Mr. Joseph Lambert, of Warfield, Va.; Miss Amorette Pruden, of the B. F.
Institute, with Mr. Gregory Wallace, of Jonesboro, Va.; Miss Nannie Barrow, of Blackstone, with Mr. Ashton Thomas, of Triangle, Va.; Miss Mariana Hite, of Tobacco, with Mr. Ben Jones, of Brydie, Va.; Miss Alice Thomas, of Nottoway, with Mr. John Neblett, of Blackstone, Va.; Miss Ella Jones, of Jonesboro, Va.; Miss Charlie Jones, of Jonesboro, Va.; Miss Mattie Haskins, of Red Oak, with Mr. John Manson, of Ordsburg, and Mr.
Edward Jones, of Triangle.

Flower girls, little Ruth Barrow and Pauline Jones.

Card-bearers and gate openers, little Bettie Jones and Nellie Hurt.
The couple left for Blackstone midst showers of rice, where they took the 6:45 P. M. train for the North, where they will visit the larger cities, and be home to their friends at Forkland after ten days. The couple received many handsome presents.

The bride is the young and accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H.
Jones, of Brunswick county, and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. J. Luther Powell, treasurer of Nottoway county.

The bridal party dined at Dr. Jones's yesterday.

Miller—Brown.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, VA., April 7.—A pretty home marriage was witnessed this evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr.
John G. Brown, cashier of the Bank of Wytheville, when his daughter, Miss Mary Noel Brown, was married to Mr. James William Miller, cashier of the People's Bank of Pulaski, by Rev. T. C. Wynn, of Algebra, Pa., uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony.

The house was handsomely decorated in jonquils and ferns.

The bride was most attractively gowned in Swiss tulle. Mrs. I. F. Krenning played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered to the relatives and near friends of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs.
Miller were assisted in receiving by Miss Lella Brown, the bride's sister; Mrs. C.
W. Hanger, of Washington, D. C.; Mr.
Charles Hayes Brown, of Knoxville,
Tenn., uncle of the bride, and Miss Bessie Noel, of Stuart, Va.

The bride and Mrs. Miller have gone on a tour of eastern cities, and returning will make their home at Pulaski.

The bride is one of Wytheville's most attractive young ladies, and will be greatly missed in social and religious circles. Mr. Miller is a native of Wythe county, and was formerly a leading merchant at Innahoo, and has many friends who will congratulate him on his good fortune.

Smith—Lane.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BEDFORD CITY, VA., April 7.—The marriage of Miss Sallie MacCorkle Lane to Mr. Horace Lacy Smith, formerly of Richmond, but now of Atlanta, Ga., took place at the Presbyterian manse here this evening at 7 o'clock. The Rev. James D. Smith, D. D., of Richmond, Va., father of the groom, officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Edward Lane, and a sister of Rev. E. E. Lane, of Bedford City.

Miss Margaret Lane, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and the Rev.
James Gray McAllister, of Farmville, Va., as best man.

The ribbons were stretched by Miss Irvine Gay and Master Calloway Brown.
The guests from a distance were Dr. and Mrs. James P. Smith, Richmond, Va., parents of the groom; Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Lexington; Miss Edna Keady, Wilmington, N. C.; Miss Frances Sproul, Staunton; Miss Robt. Jones, Blackstone; Mr. Wilfred G. Epps, Blackstone; Mr.
James P. Smith, Jr., Union Theological Seminary, Richmond; Rev. J. G. Mc-Allister, Farmville; Rev. B. W. Jopling, Glen Wilton, Va.; Rev. Joe R. Sevier, Lynchburg.

Reception was tendered to the relatives and near friends of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs.
Miller were assisted in receiving by Miss Lella Brown, the bride's sister; Mrs. C.
W. Hanger, of Washington, D. C.; Mr.
Charles Hayes Brown, of Knoxville,
Tenn., uncle of the bride, and Miss Bessie
Noel, of Stuart, Va.

tour of eastern cities, and returning will make their home at Pulaski.

circles. Mr. Miller is a native of Wythe
county, and was formerly a leading merchant at Innahoo, and has many friends
who will congratulate him on his good fortune.

Zollicoffer—Weller.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WELDON, N. C., April 7.—A fashionable wedding took place at Grace Church last night at 8 o'clock, at which hour Mr. Edwin Thomas Zollicoffer was married to Miss Della McCarroll Weller. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wil-lery, at the conclusion of which the couple left over the Atlantic Coast Line on an extended Northern tour.

McDairmid—Young.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WELDON, N. C., April 7.—At the Evans House, here, this afternoon, the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Willey was celebrated. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Rose, pastor of the Methodist Church. They came here from Petersburg, Va.

Davis—Woods.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., April 7.—Mr. James H. Davis, of the Southern Railway, and Miss Annie Woods, of Franklin, were married in Washington yesterday.

YORK COUNTY COURT.

New System Proves Beneficial.
Court Officers Appointed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
YORKTOWN, VA., April 7.—Judge D.
G. Tyler assembled his bi-monthly term of court here yesterday. All the pending cases were called on and the jury term and a large number of decrees were entered. Court adjourned last night at 10:30, after a hard day's work.

The following appointments were made: Rev. R. N. Crooks, commissioner of accounts; Sydney Smith, W. T. Stores, Solivar Shell and C. H. Shield, commissioners in chancery. George E. Bryan was appointed a justice of the peace for Nelson District.

The recommendations of the Confederate pension board were endorsed and allowed John B. Mills, a veteran, and Ann Graves and Matilda Shields, widows, pensions of $25 or $30 annually.

Judge Tyler expresses himself as very well pleased with the judicial working of the Fourteenth Circuit, and commends the wisdom of the change from the old, cumbersome regime of carpet-bag legacy.
In this portion of the State, at least, the change will prove exceedingly economical, and reimburse the expense of the Constitutional Convention in a very few years.

Quite a number of people attended the session, though a great many of the farmers and fishermen were detained at home by their vocations.

A number of visiting attorneys were present, including several well known lawyers of Richmond.

Mrs. R. A. Crooks and little son, Charles, the guests of friends in Hampton for the week.

Mr. George Cruikshank, who has been seriously ill with a threatened attack of typhoid, is now nearly convalescent.

YOUNG NEGRO SHOT.

Two Were Playing With Pistol Easter Monday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RUCKERSVILLE, VA., April 7.—A negro youth of this place named George Graves was shot by a companion, Phil Johnson, Easter Monday. The two boys were playing with a pistol, snapping it at one another, when the Johnson boy pointed it at Graves's leg and snapped the pistol. It went off, the ball entering the knee joint. The doctors have not yet been able to locate the bullet.

It is reported here that the murderers of Mrs. Lowry, the aged lady of Madison county, who was cruelly killed at her home last year, have been apprehended. It is said that the detective worked for three months before he learned anything to convict him. The detective became very chummy with the man, bunking with him, etc., and finally suggesting a plan of murder and robbery, and the murder was committed. The suspected man then told of some of his past experiences, in which Mrs. Lowry's murder was one, whereupon he was duly arrested by the detective.

Uncle Sam says it's all right

Uncle Sam, in the person of ten of his government officials, is always in charge of every department of our distillery. During the entire process of distillation, after the whiskey is stored in barrels in our warehouses, during the seven years it remains there, from the very grain we buy to the whiskey you get, Uncle Sam is constantly on the watch. We dare not take a gallon of our own whiskey from our own warehouse unless he says it's all right. And when he does say so, that whiskey goes direct to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE OF PURITY and AGE, and saving the dealers' enormous profits. That's why HAYNER WHISKEY is the best for medicinal purposes. That's why it is preferred for other uses. That's why we have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it. Your money back if you're not satisfied.

THE NEW HORSE SHOW ASSOCIATION

The Stock Is Readily Placed for One in Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 7.—

One of the most popular movements over started here was the one for organizing an association for holding an annual Horse Show at this city. Only recently announcement was made that stock could be had in the association by making application, and without any effort about two hundred shares have already been placed among one hundred and twenty-five prominent citizens, and applications are still coming in. The stock books will be kept open only a few days longer, as the managers have concluded to sell only a limited quantity. The show will be held the latter part of June, and assurances have already been received from many prominent exhibitors that their entries will be forthcoming.

Mr. Charles H. Hunkamp, of the Boswell stock farm, near this city, has been invited to act as a judge of the saddle horses, hunters and jumpers, at the Long Branch, N. J., July 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th, and will probably accept.

Mr. Joseph Swift, the well known capitalist of Wilmington, Delaware, who is one of the gentlemen interested in the organization of the Fredericksburg water power, is here, investigating with the view of making many improvements in the way of developing the property.

A number of Northern visitors, who have been recently to visit the battlefields in the surrounding country, and many organizations of Federal visitors are expected here next month.

Dr. J. Wade Garnett, formerly of Culpeper county, died a few days ago at his home in Greenville, Texas, aged fifty-five years. He was a son of the late Rev. John O. Garnett, of Culpeper, and was a relative of Mayor M. G. Willis, of this city.

Mrs. Richard James, of Rappahannock county, committed suicide a few days ago, cutting her throat with a knife, while her husband was absent from home. She had been despondent on account of ill health.
